

Professional Book Club for Grades 4-7 Teachers

"The Reading Zone" by Nancie Atwell

A longtime advocate of frequent, joyful reading in schools, the author draws on evidence gathered over twenty years of classroom teaching to make the case for a more purposeful and powerful reader's workshop. This book establishes the top ten conditions for making engaged classroom reading possible for students at all levels and provides the practical support and structures necessary for achieving them.

3:45 – 4:45

at

Capitol Hill Elementary
School, Room 104

Dates:

October 26
November 30
January 18

Please sign up on the Staff Development Calendar.

- Participants will receive a copy of "The Reading Zone", and will be expected to attend all three sessions.
- Sessions will be facilitated by Nicole Wilson and Tanis Anderson.

If you have any questions, please contact Tanis Anderson at 778-879-4447.

Tanis.Anderson@sd41.bc.ca

Program Consultant, K-12 Literacy

