

Professional Book Club for Grades 4-12
Teachers

“Disrupting Thinking: Why How we Read Matters” by Kyleene Beers and Robert E. Probst

Using the book Disrupting Thinking, teachers will explore why HOW we read matters. Come investigate practical frameworks for engaging students to be responsive, responsible, and critical readers in all subject areas.

A copy of the book will be provided to participants. Please register on the staff development calendar.

Participants are expected to attend all three sessions in order to keep the book.

3:45 – 5:15 at
Capitol Hill Elementary
School, Room 104

Dates:

January 10
January 31
February 28

*If you have any questions, please contact Tanis Anderson, Program Consultant,
K-12 Literacy*

Tanis.Anderson@burnabyschools.ca